

There is more to a home office than just a desk! Take a look at this video interview with clients who had a 100% customized dual home work space put in their home.

The dual work space allows both the husband and the wife to have their own space to work and study, while staying organized. Closets by Design took advantage of the vertical space and inserted bookshelves on both sides. Deco doors and a CPU pull-out tray add to the customized office.
